

Unclaimed property is money held by The Edge Benefits Inc. which may be payable to you under the terms of a financial product or an insurance contract. This could include premium refunds, or unpaid commission.

The provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Quebec and New Brunswick have regulations requiring the holders of unclaimed property to make reasonable efforts to locate and contact their rightful owners if their last known address is in one of the provinces listed above.

For residents of British Columbia and New Brunswick, the below list contains the names of all individuals currently owed an outstanding debt or obligation by The Edge Benefits Inc. that is older than 2 years from the time of disbursement:

Unclaimed Property Names

If your name appears on this list above, or you are a resident of another province or territory and you believe that you, or someone upon whose behalf you are acting, are the owner of unclaimed property being held by The Edge Benefits Inc., you can initiate a search using The Edge Benefits Unclaimed Property Request Form.

To initiate a search for unclaimed properties, please complete the above form and send any supporting documentation to compliance@edgebenefits.com. A representative will contact you within 30 days.

Note: Failure to provide the necessary information request on the form may result in your claim being delayed or denied.
